BioPASS

Your Personal Quartzy Lab Manager for Smarter Supply Management

What is BioPASS?

BioPASS (Bio Procurement, Accounting & Spend Solutions) is Quartzy's newest service. Hand off the entire ordering and tracking process to us. Your personal Quartzy lab manager will handle all requests, orders, status updates, cancellations, and backorders so you don't have to. Free your time and accelerate your research.

BioPASS Benefits:

- ✓ Save Time on Ordering – Free up your team by letting a Quartzy expert handle all your supply orders, so you can focus on the science, not the shopping.
- ✓ Avoid Research Delays – Never get stuck waiting on backordered items—we find fast, reliable alternatives to keep your work moving.
- ✓ Simplify Finances – Eliminate invoice headaches and payment confusion with smooth, centralized billing support.
- ✓ Skip the Supplier Runaround – We manage all vendor communication for you, so you're not wasting time tracking people down.
- ✓ Work Smarter in Quartzy – Stay organized and efficient with everything handled right within the platform your team already knows and loves.
